SENATOR CALVIN S. BRICE'S WEALTH.

Senator Calvin S. Brice is estimated to be worth over $6,000,000.

Ten years ago as a railroad lawyer at Lima, Ohio, all he had was his home and that incumbered.

All of this immense fortune has been accumulated in this short period in successful railroad deals.

His success has been phenomenal and while it shows the possibilities of this country nevertheless it is largely but the caprice of fortune.

It is the grand prize in the lottery of chance which every now and then one man of a million draws.

For the other 999,999 common sense teaches us it is folly to hope for such luck.

The chances are all against us.

There is a certain way for every man, woman or child to accumulate a competence.

It is the rule that we see followed by those all around us, who are steadily getting ahead financially.

The certain rule of wealth is very simple, it is to save.

It is not how much, or how little we earn that makes any one rich, it is what is put by.

Every one has this chance. The boy or girl who forms habits of industry and learns to save is sure to succeed.

The man or woman who determines to put by a part of their earnings and who does it, is certain to become independent.

The great trouble is we say, next week I will begin; next month I will have some surplus; next year I will have better pay and can put by something of consequence.

Next week and next month and next year always bring needs as pressing as those of to-day.

The sure rule is, begin now. Put by a part of your earnings and whether the start is in dimes or dollars, nevertheless make a start.

You can put it by by putting it where it will bring you in something, or invest it in necessities where and when they are sold cheap.

Thousands and millions of dollars are saved every year by persons taking advantage of buying where they can get good necessities of life cheap.

We know of no better place where this can be done than at the Drug, Book and Wall Paper House of Saur & Balsey.

Just at this season this house is offering some paying and special bargains in wall paper and decorations, consisting of some of the prettiest designs ever shown in the Northwest.

Also, as this is the sickly season, this popular house is offering to humanity a variety of pure medicines that cannot help to keep one in good health and cure you if you are ailing.

Much money can be saved by investing a small amount in good pure remedies and preventatives of disease.

Their patents and oils are standard goods and are sold guaranteed to be the best, and it is money saved to get the best, especially when the article is sold at the small margin which reign at the house of Saur & Balsey, Napoleon, O.

Write to Chas. E. Reynolds about your Pension Claim.

For the latest styles of wall paper call at the store of P. H. Voigt, Holgate. New styles cheap.

If I was asked to describe it, said a prominent citizen the other day, I should say that it was the most perfect collection of new, bright and seasonable goods I have ever seen in Napoleon and it has certainly been selected with the view of meeting the requirements of this community. He was speaking of the elegant stock of clothing and furnishings which Geo. Hahn, the old reliable clothier, is offering and showing to the people.

WHEREAS, The stormy weather has reduced the gate money receipts to almost nothing, leaving the other receipts insufficient to pay even the indebtedness incurred for improvements made and for the ordinary fair expenses, and

WHEREAS, To pay the premium on awards in this hall would necessitate the incurring a debt which would embarrass and hamper the fair association for years to come. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that the directors of the fair will be justified in deciding to award no cash premiums on exhibits in this hall this year, and those of the undersigned having exhibits in this hall cheerfully waive our right to such cash premiums for this year and declare our perfect willingness to make the next year's fair as great a success in exhibits made as it is this year, trusting that in the future as in the past, the directors will be able to meet all expenses from the receipts.

Keep Your Eyes Open.

Every man ought to have two eyes open when he's awake and not close more than one when he sleeps. It is the man with his eyes open, the wide awake man as we call him who sees the opportunities of life, sees them and sizes them. Nothing escapes him. The sleepy man walks down Perry street and sees only a number of stores, all somewhat alike; the wide awake man sees an air of business about the Eagle Clothing House, the goods catch his eye, he looks, he prices, he buys. You never catch a wide awake man passing the Eagle Clothing House. He knows they carry the largest stock of clothing, men's furnishings and hats in the city, being the leaders of low prices. Mr. Myer's will not allow himself to be undersold by competitors. Take our advice, save your money—Mr. Myer's will save you money on any article you buy of him. He wants your trade and if low prices and gentlemanly treatment is an inducement to you, he will catch you. Try him. New fall and winter suits arriving daily, and they are handsome.

The Pittsburg Post says: "A certain J. H. Brigham, who is posing as a Republican and Farmers' Alliance candidate for Congress in the Sixth district of Ohio, is in Pennsylvania on a mission to the farmers and in the services of Boss Quay to help Delamater out of the bag. This is an important agricultural issue, with money in it, and the farmers of the Sixth Ohio district should take notice. The Ohio granger who becomes a Quay man in Pennsylvania will become a Quay man in Ohio."

OBITUARY.

CHORSMAN.—Florence V. Crossman, infant daughter of Harry and Anna Crossman, was born April 13th, 1890, and died September 6th, 1890, aged 4 months and 24 days.

There is the second one taken from this family; her pure bright spirit has gone to the heavenly home. There is no death to such as these, Florence, neither darkness nor shadow of death—only such a bright fading as when the morning stars fade in the glorious dawn, and while their precious bodies sleep aside by the grave, their immortal spirits are united to the home beyond, while we can but faintly imagine the deep joy among the angels when they welcome sweet baby Florence to their midst, while with loving hands and breaking hearts they placed the tiny coffin by their side in the tomb.

Weep not friends for this loved one. That so soon has passed away, She has left a world of sorrow For a bright and glorious day.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

RIDGEVILLE, Sept. 15.

The band boys have bought an entire new set of instruments.

Last Friday, about noon, one of Otto Schroder's little boys, in jumping from a wagon, caught one foot on the endgate and fell to the ground hurting one of his arms considerably.

A good many wondered why W. B. Tabbs wore such a broad smile last Friday, the cause for it was, "I'm a grand pa, you know, of the finest little gal in the county." Will is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Harrison Irving and daughter of Stryker, have been spending a couple of weeks with friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

D. A. Fauver loaded stock four times one day last week, to take to the fair, and finally kept it at home on account of the rain.

Agents for a range stove have been in this neighborhood for a few days, and it stands people in hand to be on their guard, when they make contracts with men, of whom they know little or nothing. If we were asked for advice on such matters we would say, buy of your home dealers, of whom you can get just as good if not better goods for the same money.

There was a slight frost in this section yesterday morning, but not enough to hurt corn or other crops.

Old Lady Dittmer, mother of C. H. Dittmer, is lying quite low at the home of the latter; her age is such that her chances for recovery are not as good as if she were not so old.

Work on the pike is now at a stand still, owing to the rains we have been having; the roads are too soft to admit of the hauling of heavy loads of gravel over them for a few days yet.

F. A. Rowe, candidate for auditor, has spent the last two weeks canvassing the county and will finish up this week in the southern part. If he meets with the same favor from all parts of the county that he does where he is known there will be no doubt of his nomination; from present indications he would receive, besides the Democratic votes, the support of quite a number of Republicans in this township.

WINDOM'S PLAN FOR RELIEF

He Will Receive Proposals for the Sale of $16,000,000 of 4 Per Cent. Bonds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Secretary Windom left the Fifth avenue hotel this evening for Williamstown, Mass., to join his family. He received but a few callers at the hotel during the day and in the afternoon announced to representatives of the press the plan he had devised for the relief of the stringency in the money market. As a result of his conference with the bank presidents and financiers at the sub-treasury on Saturday, Secretary Windom said that he had decided to receive proposals for the sale of 4 to the amount of $16,000,000, the proposals to be received at the treasury department in Washington at 12 o'clock Wednesday next. These bonds the secretary will purchase if a reasonable price is asked for them. At the same time Secretary Windom will offer to prepay the three-fourths of a year the interest on currency 6s. The announcement of these offers will come from Washington over the secretary's signature on Wednesday morning, where it will be officially formulated. Secretary Windom said that it was not usual for statements of the above kind to be made before they emanated officially from Washington, but owing to the anxiety of so many of the business community as to what was going to be done by the treasury department in the premises, he thought it best to announce beforehand, although it was Sunday, his intentions.
